

Hawk Roostings.

Angus Fitzgerald.

1) Why is the poem written in the first person's viewpoint? 5 minutes.

The poem is written in the first person's viewpoint as the writer could be saying that he is the Hawk. And that he is showing how simple the Hawk's life is, and so he is becoming like this. In the last line in the last stanza it says, "I am going to keep things like this." showing this is him.

---

2) What does the poem tell us about human-beings? 5 minutes.

The poem tells us about human beings as Hawks have no control over what we do, they do what they do ~~as~~ because how they are made to be. Where as humans need to make lots of decisions to get to a point.

---

3) How do the words of the poem support its main message? 5 minutes.

The ~~message~~ of the poem main message of the poem is showing how a Hawk is a predator and to rely on how it is. Also how humans accept the Hawk killing humans is bad.